

Lectures in English Prof. Dr. iur. Kurt Pärli, as of March 2024

For a list of all presentations please follow the link

- April 4, 2024 The project for a regulation on platform work in the European Union: An innovative approach – but would it work (and how)?, ILERA 10th Africa Congress, Mosi-oo-Tunya
- September 8, 2023 The importance of social security and labour law for compliance with public health, European Conference of International Society for Labour Law and Social Security Law, The lighthouse function of Social Law, Ghent.
- April 11, 2023 Platform Work Directive, New Employment Relations: Untying The Knot(s), Lisbon
- September 9, 2021 New Challenges for Social Security, International Society for Labour & Social Security Law, XXII World Congress, mit Masahiko Iwamura, Lima, Peru (online).
- March 16, 2021 Autonomy and the need for more democracy in the world of work, 18th International Conference in Commemoration of Prof Marco Biagi – Beyond Employment: Protecting Autonomous Work, Online Conference, Modena, Italy.
- November 23/24, 2020 The 4th IR: An analysis of recent judgments in different countries regarding platform work – need for better protection regardless the employee-status, 3rd African Labour Law Society Conference – 2nd African Regional Conference of the ISLSSL, Gaborone, Botswana. Due to the corona virus pandemic, the conference will be taking place physically, as well as virtually.
- October 26, 2020 Work from home – legal aspects, Syndicom office hour, Google Zürich.
- December 13, 2019 How can social dialogue contribute to the enhancement of gig workers' rights? SNIS Project Final Conference – Gig economy and its

- Implications for Social Dialogue and Workers' Protection. Main outcomes from a cross-national comparative research project in Switzerland, Germany, Greece and United Kingdom, mit Jean-Michel Bonvin, Nicola Cianferoni und Luca Perrig, Geneva.*
- December 12, 2019 Working under conditions of welfare: legal framework, prevalence and regulatory gaps, mit Melanie Studer und Gesine Fuchs, Neuchâtel.
- May 8, 2019 Digital delocalizations and collective labor rights, Interdisciplinary research seminars on WORK, first semester 2019, to mark the 100th anniversary of the ILO (1919–2019), organized by the Contact Group FNRS - work and social emancipation – Working paper for the theme "the present role of spatial dimension in the (re)composition of work relationships", mit Anne Meier, Leuven.
- April 30, 2019 Democratisation of the world of work through digitalisation – What does this mean for participation and social partnership?, Labour Law, Brussels, Belgium.
- October 31, 2018 The Swiss posted workers Act and free movement of services between Switzerland and the EU, UCL Labour Rights Institute event, London, United Kingdom.
- September 5, 2018 Digitalisation and the need for data and privacy protection as an issue of well-being at work, ISLSSL-Conference Torino, Turin, Italy.
- June 26, 2017 Why "enforced" activation of sick employees leads to presentism, who is responsible and who has to pay for the costs, Labour Law Research Conference, Toronto, Canada.
- August 26, 2016 Discrimination in the field of labour Law – What legal instruments?, Lecture at the NCCR Sommer School, University of Neuchatel, Neuchatel.
- June 9-11, 2016 Enforced cooperation for patients – implications for Social Rights, XXIe EUMASS Congress and 4th International Congress of Medical Assessors in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

- May 19-20, 2016 Protection of worker's privacy in the age of digitalisation: A human rights issue, Conference "New Foundation of Labour Law in the Globalised Market Economy", Stockholm, Sweden.
- June 26, 2015 Dismissal on the grounds of HIV/AIDS status. A reflection with reference to three court decisions at different levels, International Labour law research Conference, Amsterdam, Netherlands.
- March 5, 2013 Legitimation and Human Rights in the European Union, Delegitimation and communication international research seminar, Jerusalem, Israel.